DAVIS THEATRE.

Three Big Features Next Week, Including Captain Hero and His Eight Polar Bears, the Greatest Act of Its Kind in the World.

Three big distinct features will be seen at the Davis theatre next week, with the headine attraction Captain Hero and his eight polar bears, a sensational animal act, and the only 30t of its kind in the world. These intelligent animals do many clever stunts that will surprise you. This act carries its own scenery and the stage is converted into a mammoth cage; nothing like this has been seen on this stage, and is something novel and different from the usual vaudeville acts. Feature No. 2 is Lily Langtry, the celebrated favorite of two continents in a tense dramatic play, His the celebrated favorite of two continents, in a tense dramatic play, His Neighbor's Wife, in four reels of motion pictures, produced by the Famous Players Film company. His Neighbor's Wife is an absorbing drama and a very intense photoplay.

For Monday a musical comedy with special scenery and electrical effects entired Fun on the Briney will be the feature attraction. There are 10 people in the cast, including several pretty girls.

For Monday a musical comedy with special scenery and electrical effects in the cast, including several pretty girls. ball team, playing Reading, Barnsley and Burnley in the second, third and fourth rounds of the English cup ties; this picture gives you a good oppor-tunity to see all the stars, as each one comes up close to the picture and can early be distinguished, including Bob Crompton, Jock Simpson, Dan Shea Crompton, Jock Simpson, Dan Shea and others. There is 2,000 feet to this film and shows a great game with Aston Villa in the semi-final. Those Aston Villa in the semi-final. Those who have never seen a big English football game cannot afford to miss this chance to see the greatest experts who play the game, and to those interested in the local soccer teams this will surely prove a treat. Other dramatic and comedy photoplays will be shown, including Patty's Flirtation, a screaming funny Keystone comedy. Gorman's Merrymakers today, matinee and evening.

Thursday afterneon and evening. The clerk, H. L. Yerrington, gave a lengthy and carefully prepared report, going over in detail the events of the past year, referring to the lifelong association of the late Deacon George R. Hyde with this church, to his services freely and abundantly rendered to the church he loved and prized, and for which his cares and tolls were given while life lasted.

BOSTON OPERA SINGERS

Coming to the Davis Theatre. At last this city is to have an op-portunity of hearing that wonderful company of grand opera singers from the Boston opera house which has al-ready visited most of the cities in New England, New York and Pennsylvania. The engagement will take place in the Davis theatre Thursday evening, Jan. 3. and the offering will be Verdi's tuneful opera. La Traviata, in four acts, sung in its entirety with costumes and scenery, preceded by a superb concert programme of arias and ensemble numbers from several other well known operas, including the famous Sextette from Lucia.

A foretaste of what the music lover, trained and amateur, may expect from this engagement may be gathered from the universal praise bestowed on the company in every city visited. The Hartford Courant declared that not in the 18 years' history of Parson's theathe 18 years' history of Parson's thea-tre had there been as brilliant an aggregation of singers or as satisfying a programme in that city. "A brilliant erray of grand opera singers and a wonderfully satisfying musical programme," said the Providence Journal. The Syracuse, N. Y., Herald critic said: "Singing as good as that done by the Boston opera visitors." the Boston opera visitors is a rare pleasure up York state." And like sentiments were expressed by news-papers and prominent citizens in every city where the company appeared.

The company includes two sopranos, in the company includes two sopranos, in the Maria DiGabbi, who for two years was prima donna soprano of the La Scala opera house in Milan, the greatest opera house in the world, and Mme. Marguerita Boas, who early in the fall returned from a series of European triumphs; two tenors, M. Glovanni Gatti, who has sung leading tenor roles in nearly every big opera house of the world, and M. Raoul Bomito, for three years a first tenor of the Boston Opera company; two baritones, M. Nikola Oulukonoff, the famous Russian baritone, and M. Romero Malpice, who is ranked as one of the three greatest baritones in opera, Titthe Boston Opera company; two baritones, M. Nikola Ouiukonoff, the famous Russian baritone, and M. Romero Malpice, who is ranked as one of the three greatest baritones in opera, Titta Ruffo and Amato being the other two; a prima donna contraito, Mile. Emma Ecker, whom critics declare the successor of the great Shumann-Heink; a mezzo-soprano, Mile. Josefina Rondero, whose repertoire includes every standard mezzo role, and a basso, M. Edgar Littleton, who is easily the greatest of all American bassos. Never before has such an aggregation of stars appeared outside the big grand opera centers like New York, Boston and Chicago. Prices, 50c, 75c, $1, $1.50; box seats $2. Seats go on sale Tuesday, Jan. 6, at 10 a. m.

COLONIAL THEATRE.

Janet of the Dunes, Delightful Two-Reel Story of Long Island.

With characteristic attention to detail and fidelity to plot, the Edison company presents at the Colonial the world-famous story of Harriet T, Comstock, entitled Janet of the Dunes, one of the season's most successful features. This is a story of a city man who marrieg a country girl, tires of ther and finally deserts her. She returns to the country and dies there, leaving a little daughter, Year's later the man returns, but does not know his daughter until she is engaged to one of his friends; then he atones for his desertion. AT THE AUDITORIUM.

Three fine vaudeville acts and a swell set of motion pictures with Flo Lawrence in the feature reel make up one of the best and liveliest bills ever seen in the city of Norwich. The headline act for today is The Electric Boy, presented by Baker, Lynn & Co. This sketch is a perfect scream throughout and is full of the funniest situations and bright comedy lines, handled by three very capable people. If you see this sketch you've got to laugh and laugh heartily, that is all there is to it. One of the most popular singles that Reports Presented.

The report of the secretary and treasurer, Deacon L. A. Hyde, was read by George F. Hyde and showed that the sum total of benevolent contributions from all sources was $1,132.89. The officers elected for the ensuing year were: H. L. Yerrington, clerk; H. L. Yerrington, secretary and treasurer, with an assistant; O. S. Smith, deacon to fill the place made vacant by the death of Deacon G. R. Hyde; F. S. Avery, memoer standing committee ushers, Henry Frazier, G. F. Hyde, ushers, Henry Frazier, G. F. Hyde, Houston Lathrop, Philip Whaley, Miss M. E. watties' report of the Sunday school showed 34 fair and pleasant Sundays, an average attend-ance of 96, 114 names enrolled, contributions $193.84. The home department of the school has 50 members. The Church Improvement society nas raised $29.77, balance on hand $20.25; Lathrop Memorial Foreign Missionary society and branches, $73.92. The encouraging report of the home missionary society was given by the president, Mrs. T. J. Watties, who also read a letter from the home mission-ary, Mrs. John Smith, of Princeton, Neb., written upon the receipt at Neb, written upon the receipt at Christmas time of two barrels from this society. Every one present espe-cially enjoyed hearing this most inter-esting account of the opening of the parrels, upon which much thought and family's appreciation

The reports of the Christian Endeav-or societies, clearly given by Miss or societies, clearly given by Miss Marion Rogers and Philip Luther, showed entnusiasm and interest on the part of the young people. The senior society has 32 active and 14 associate members; the largest Sabbath attendance, 55—average 21, 49 committee meetings, also union meetings with Montville and West Town street societies. Preparation was made for each meeting, a feature of one being a de-bate, of others special music, two lecbate, of others special music, two lectures arranged for, first aid to the injured and Panama canal, Esperanto class formed, flower committee took charge of church decoration, $29.50 given to various objects. The junior society has 15 active, 14 preparatory members. They held a Sunday service at the Sheitering Arms, baskets of fruit were sent Thanksgiving and Christmas cards at Christmas.

Yerrington. After reading the new creed adopted at the national council, Rev. Mr. Ew-ing recommended that some action be taken with reference to the stand of this church. It was then voted that the new creed should be added to the creed which has been for years used as the expression of the belief of this First church.

Mr. Yerrington's Recital.

A well selected musical programme marked the recital given by Organist H. i. Yerrington assisted by Miss Jessie E. Gifford, soloist, and Ellis Sweet, violiniat. The first number from Bach was played with spirit and true appreciation of the author. In The Virgin's Prayer and Songs in the Night were good interpretations of the soft, sweet strains appearing and dis-appearing. In Miss Gifford's first selection, Gray's He Shall Give His Angels Charge, she gave the clear sweet notes beautifully, her voice showing a wonderful range.

The social hour in the chapel, including the rollcall of members, responded to by scripture verses and selections of prose and poetry, and the serving of a bountful supper closed the New Year's gathering.

AT DAYBREAK.

In the blue sky one little star And in my soul a hope so young. And white and starlike trambling still. By God upon my-life-string hung.

In the high tree a cheerful bird.

And in mine ear a burst of song.

To bring me joy and soft-eyen prace,

And make my pulses beat more strong.

On the far hills a crimson shines.

And in my heart a dawn of light—
Today Love's roses will be red.

Today my hours will be bright.
